TATIANA COGNAC Classic

ORIGIN: Dominican Republic
MAKER: Tatiana Cigars
FILLER: Dominican Republic
BINDER: Dominican Republic
WRAPPER: Indonesia
SIZE: 6 x 44

Miami Cigar & Company's Tatiana flavored cigars offer among the most extensive selection one can find: four different (mostly small) sizes, and 14 different flavors, ranging from honey, cinnamon, and cherry to more mature tastes such as rum and coffee and even a trio of sophisticated blends reminiscent of decadent cocktails.

But despite it all, Tatiana never had a classic Cognac offering. Until now, that is. Available in Tatiana's largest but slender "Classic" size (as well as the 5 x 38 La Vita shape), Tatiana Cognac is a hand-made, long fill cigar with a sweet tip—a medium-bodied, sweet treat for when the mood strikes.

EL INCOMPARABLE Robustos

ORIGIN: Honduras
MAKER: Texas Cigar Brothers
FILLER: Dominican Republic
BINDER: Dominican Republic
WRAPPER: Ecuador
SIZE: 4 1/2 x 50

Here's a blast from the past: about 5,000 of these 1990s cigar boom-era Honduran premium handmades have been aging over a decade since the line disappeared from store shelves in 1998. Created by the Marty family in Honduras, the cigars were perhaps the finest (and costliest) infused cigar of the day—imbued with 21-year-old Glenfarclas Single Malt Scotch Whiskey. The cigars, wrapped in cedar and sealed in individual aluminum tubes, are as tasty as ever. Texas Cigar Brothers (www.texascigarbrothers.com) snatched up the remaining inventory from the small boutique factory in Honduras that produces their own cigars. Get some while you can!
